New Proposal Development Guides

• Appendix C - Proposal Development Guide for Traditional Associate Degree in Arts (A.A.) and Associate in Science (A.S.)

• Appendix D - Proposal Development Guide for Certificates
CIV2 Benefits

- Transition from forms to the CIV2 system
- Access to course and program information
- Advantage of streamlined program proposals
- Improved ability to create proposals and reports
Program Report
Significant Change

• The Narrative has been streamlined from 21 to 7 items (page 55 and Appendix C and D)

• CTE proposals must include additional documentation:
  – Labor Market Information and Analysis
  – Advisory Committee Recommendations
  – Regional Consortia Approval Meeting Minutes (page 84 and Appendix C and D)
Significant Change

• For a credit program with a goal of CTE or CTE Transfer, an employer survey is no longer required unless it is needed as a component of a LMI Analysis (page 87)
Significant Change

- Only one articulation agreement through ASSIST will be required for transfer degrees.
Every new program starts with an idea

- Faculty Driven
- Community Driven
- Grant Driven
Labor Market Demand

- Labor market demand and trends helps community colleges align curriculum to employment needs.
