Baccalaureate Degree Study
Group Charge

- How bachelor's degree programs complement other community college offerings.
- How bachelor's degree programs address specific regional or state workforce needs.
- Documented demand for additional bachelor's graduates.
- Additional costs of delivering the proposed bachelor's degree programs.
- Admission criteria for bachelor's degree programs and number of students to be served by the programs.
- Would unnecessarily duplication of other degree programs occur in certain regions?
Charge...

- How articulation strategies might complement or limit the movement of students from community colleges to the CSU or UC systems.
- Implications for accreditation.
- Ability of community colleges to support bachelor's degree programs.
- What changes would be needed at the Chancellor’s Office to support bachelor’s degrees.
- Data collection and evaluation needed to measure the success and effectiveness.

Summary of national arguments in favor of the community college baccalaureate

- Ability to meet local workforce demands
- Expertise in applied and technical degrees
- Improved access to the baccalaureate
- Overcrowding at four-year colleges
- Support of under-represented students
- Reduced taxpayer cost
- Reduced student cost
- Alternative to for-profit institutions
Community College Baccalaureate Degree Option

California Policy and Legislative History
Legislative History of CCC Baccalaureate Degree Option

Five Legislative Items

- AB 1932 (Maze, 2004)
- AB 1280 (Maze, 2005)
- AB 1455 (Hill, 2009)
- AB 2400 (Block, 2010)
- AB 661 (Block, 2011)
Established advisory committee to recommend a framework for Porterville College and College of the Sequoias to offer baccalaureate degrees

Held by Assembly Committee on Higher Education
AB 1280 (Maze): Public Postsecondary Education: California Community College Baccalaureate Partnership Program

- Authorized 2 annual $50,000 grants to a collaborative of one or more community colleges and baccalaureate degree-granting institution to offer baccalaureate programs on community colleges campuses
- Signed by Governor Oct. 2005
AB 1455 (Hill): Public Postsecondary Education: Community Colleges: Baccalaureate Degrees: Pilot Program

- Authorized the San Mateo CCD to offer baccalaureate degree
- Failed, but folded into AB 2400 in 2010
AB 2400 (Block): Public Postsecondary Education: Community Colleges: Baccalaureate Degree Pilot Program

- Authorized the San Diego, Grossmont-Cuyamaca and San Mateo CCDs to establish baccalaureate degree pilot programs
- Failed in Assembly Committee on Higher Education
AB 661 (Block): Public Postsecondary Education: Community College Districts: Baccalaureate Degree Pilot Program

- Authorized Grossmont-Cuyamaca and San Mateo CCDs to offer one baccalaureate degree pilot program per campus
- Passed Assembly Higher Education subcommittee, but failed in general Assembly due to inactivity
Accreditation Issues
WASC and ACCJC
History of Accreditation

- Joint Accreditation
  - Northern Marianas College: B.S. in Education, 2000
  - Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising: B.S. in Interior Design, 2005
ACCJC seeking to change

- 2013 DOE nixes joint accreditation
- ACCJC asks DOE for change in scope to accredit bachelor’s degree at community colleges
- NACIQI review in December, 2013; notification expected in March, 2014
ACCJC requirements

• Added to draft standards new requirements specific to bachelor’s degree
  ☑ Minimum 120 semester credits
  ☑ Minimum GE requirement 36 semester credits
  ☑ All standards apply and interpreted in the context of the degree (e.g. faculty credentials, library resources, etc. should be appropriate to the degree)
California demand for 4 year degrees

Adapted from

Andrew LaManque, Ph.D.

“(Nationally) Our Current Postsecondary System Will Not Meet the Growing Demand for Workers with Postsecondary Education and Training”

By 2018, 63 percent of job openings will require workers with at least some college education.

Source: Georgetown Center on Education and the Workforce forecasts of educational demand to 2018.

Among the 20 most populous states, California ranks 19th in the percentage of high school graduates who enroll directly in a four-year college or university; 18th in the percentage who enroll in any college, including community colleges; and 18th in the ratio of bachelor’s degrees awarded to high school graduates.

CALIFORNIA’S COLLEGE-GOING RATES OF RECENT HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES ARE LOW

“(In California) By 2025, Demand for College-Educated Workers Will Outstrip the Supply”

California Degree Needs

- Since 2000, California has lost slightly more college graduates to other states than it has gained from those states. California does attract highly skilled workers from other countries, but not enough to meet the need.

- Currently, state public institutions award slightly more than 110,000 bachelor’s degrees each year and private institutions award 40,000. To meet the projected demand by 2025, the state would need to immediately increase the number awarded by almost 60,000 per year—about 40 percent above current levels.

“Of the more than one million job openings over the 10-year projections period requiring a bachelor’s degree, more than 250,000 also require pre-employment work experience in a related occupation, and more than 260,000 openings also require on-the-job training.”
The Need for Applied Baccalaureate Degrees

- Health profession jobs that once required no more than LPN or RN certification now demand the BSN or higher in addition to state licensure. In short, individuals seeking secure, established, and reasonably lucrative careers in allied health, public service, law enforcement, and the technologies must expect to make a commitment of no less than the baccalaureate merely to gain access to these fields.

National Efforts to Increase Registered Nurse Requirements to Baccalaureate Level

“Rapidly expanding clinical knowledge and mounting complexities in health care mandate that professional nurses possess education preparation commensurate with the diversified responsibilities required of them...As such, registered nurses at the entry-level of professional practices should possess, at a minimum, the educational preparation provided by a four-year Bachelor of Science degree program in nursing (BSN).”

Discussion Points

- Values and Principles
- Opportunities and Challenges
- Questions to Be Considered
Values or Principles

• AA degrees are to remain the primary mission
  • Address critical workforce needs
  • Strategic and targeted
  • Meets the needs of the students
  • Colleges should be allowed to opt in and not be forced to do Baccalaureate programs
  • Avoid unnecessary duplication of services as much as possible
• Continue high quality programs
  • Comparable program at a 4-year college
  • Allow students to pursue a Masters Degree or higher
Opportunities

- Serves underserved areas and populations
- Responds to workforce needs
- Benefits the state economy
- Part of a national trend
- Removes barriers for completion
- Compensates for lack of university capacity in some fields

Challenges

- Need for additional funding
- Capacity issues (physical and programmatic)
- Mission creep
- Faculty hiring issues – possible collective bargaining complications
- Legislation needed
Questions to Be Considered and Discussions to Be Had

• Should this be part of a total reassessment of the Master Plan for Higher Education?
• What statewide or regional needs to be addressed first?
• How/why are CSU, UC, and others unable to fill the need?
• How should the Baccalaureate Degrees be funded?
  • Differential tuition?
  • State aid?
  • Local budget discretion?
  • Other?
What Happens Now?

- Study group will report its findings
- Findings will be given to the Chancellor
- Any further action by the Chancellor’s Office will be through consultative processes
- The Legislature is very interested in the findings of this group but it is unknown what action will be taken.
