SUBJECT: Survey of Courses Students Are Awarded Credit for Prior Military Experience

In response to AB 2462 (Block) and provisions established under section 66025.7 of the California Education Code, the Chancellor's Office seeks your input in completing a brief survey to identify courses, for which your college has in the past awarded college credit to students with prior military experience. The provisions of Education Code, section 66025.7, are referenced below:

California Education Code, Section 66025.7

By July 1, 2015, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, using common course descriptors and pertinent recommendations of the American Council on Education, shall determine for which courses credit should be awarded for prior military experience.

ACTION/DATE REQUESTED: Your cooperation with completing a brief "Survey of Community College Credit Awarded for Prior Military Experience" (or forwarding this correspondence to the designated individual on your campus that can complete the survey form), accessible online by clicking here, by close of business Tuesday, November 10, 2015 is greatly appreciated.
