

Leslie LeBlanc serves as the Senior Legal Analyst for the Office of the General Counsel working on the regulatory files and serving as EEO Coordinator. She has recently returned to this position following two years in the Academic Affairs division where she worked on curriculum review and helped to establish the Inmate Education and Re-Entry Program. Prior to coming to the Chancellor's Office, Leslie worked for the Legal Affairs division at the Department of Toxic Substances Control, and prior to that she spent over 20 years at several different private practice law firms in the Bay Area.

Leslie is a registered organic producer and when she is not at work, she spends most of her time on her small farm with her husband, going to the beach, or enjoying time with her grandchildren.

Leslie is a byproduct of the California community colleges, and attended U.C. Davis for Paralegal Studies.
