“BUILDING INTERDISCIPLINARY TEAMS FOR EFFECTIVE LEGAL COMPLIANCE”

Summit #3: Building Workforce Diversity: It Takes a Village

The Bay Area CCD Employment Relations Consortium invites you to the third of its new summit-style training series. These trainings recognize and facilitate the interdisciplinary collaboration necessary to implement today's complex legal obligations. In this third day-long summit, your administrators from across the institution—human resources, academic affairs, risk management, deans, VPs and presidents, etc.—are invited to join together to discuss legal requirements and operational strategies for compliance with Title 5 EEO regulations and building a diverse workforce. Anyone who participates in any phase of the hiring process in the faculty, classified and/or administrative ranks is encouraged to attend.

We continue our summit series with guidance from Liebert Cassidy Whitmore partner Laura Schulkind on:

- Overview of legal requirements regarding EEO hiring post-Prop 209
- Legally compliant EEO Plans under the new Title 5 Regulations
 - Legal requirements
 - Roles across the institution in creating EEO Plans
 - Strategies for completing the centerpiece of the new EEO Plan model: “developing & maintaining institutional commitment to diversity”
- Overview of legally compliant strategies to promote diversity across the institution
 - The importance of institutional commitment at all levels
 - The key role of campus climate in effective recruiting

- Strategies for building highly qualified and diverse applicant pools (academic, classified & administrative)
- Essential components of screening committee composition and training
- Retentions strategies
- Labor issues regarding internal candidates and succession planning

- Linking workforce diversity and student success

The day will include a range of opportunities for small group discussions, sharing information, and application through interactive and practical scenarios.

LCW is an approved provider for Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit. Attorneys attending this course will receive 5.5 hours of MCLE credit. An MCLE sign-in sheet and certificate will be available at the summit.
