

Javier L. Gonzalez serves as the legal staffer for the Office of the General Counsel. Mr. Gonzalez has held multiple positions during his tenure with the State of California, earning him administrative and legal experience in various levels of state government. His prior state agency experience includes—the California Business, Consumer Services and Housing Agency, the Department of Consumer Affairs' Legal Affairs Division and Executive Office, and the Legislative Counsel's Office.

Javier became a naturalized U.S. Citizen in 2011; he immigrated to California with his parents as a child from Michoacán, Mexico. He is passionate about civil rights law and education accessibility for underrepresented students.

He received his A.A. in Political Science from Sacramento City College and is currently in the process of transferring to the University of California, Davis pursuing an undergraduate degree in International Relations. He enjoys learning linguistics, origins of cultures and the components that continue to shape globalization. During spare time, he likes bike riding, listening to world music and sightseeing.