

Peter V. Khang serves as Deputy Counsel for the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office. Prior to joining the Chancellor's Office, Peter worked at Hackard Law Corporation as an Associate Attorney and clerked at Dreyer Babich Buccola Wood Campora, LLP and the Sacramento County District Attorney's Office. He has also served as a writing instructor/reader at Lincoln Law School since 2014.

Peter was born and raised in Sacramento, where he currently resides with his wife and daughter. In his spare time, Peter enjoys sports, traveling, musicals, and rooting for his Cal Golden Bears.

Peter received a B.A. in Legal Studies and a minor degree in Education from U.C. Berkeley, and a Juris Doctor degree from Lincoln Law School in 2013.