NEW TRANSFER CENTER DIRECTOR TRAINING

SACRAMENTO, CA
DECEMBER 3, 2013
Resource #1

- The official repository of articulation for California’s public colleges and universities.

ASSIST

- Provides the most accurate and up-to-date information related to course transferability and requirements affecting student transfer in California.
Resource #2

- System office representing 112 individual colleges through leadership, advocacy, and support.

CCCCCO
(CA Community College Chancellor’s Office)

- Provides California community colleges support on a statewide level in order to foster access, success and lifelong learning for all students. Our direct representation comes through the Student Services and Special Programs division, specifically through the Transfer and Articulation unit. TCD primary points of contact include Jeff Spano, Bob Quinn and Kimberly Cortijo.
Resource #3

- A single site designed specifically for transfer counselors to peruse the myriad of resource and reference information necessary for assisting students through the transfer process.

TCW
(Transfer Counselor Website)

- It is a resource, grant-funded through the Chancellor’s Office, developed by a community college/Transfer Center Director peer and maintained by colleagues. All resources are made available in a single location, organized by system, and equipped with a search function. The website also includes a broad-based listserv joined by all parties invested in the transfer function – not just TCDs!
Established in 1868, its headquarters manage all fiscal and business operations while supporting the academic and research missions across its campuses, labs and medical centers.

UCOP
(University of California, Office of the President)

In partnership with CCC Chancellor’s Office and, subsequently, Transfer Center Directors, UC remains committed to the transfer mission. TCD primary contacts include Shawn Brick, Michael Trevino, and Evera Spears
Resource #5

- Research and evaluation leadership to support systemwide decision making.

Research, Analysis & Accountability Group
(CCC Chancellor’s Office)

- Produces transfer-related reports including transfer volumes (UC, CSU, and Private/OOS) and transfer rates, Student Success Scorecard, as well as the ARCC report on accountability standards. TCD primary contacts may include Alice van Ommeren and Myrna Huffman.
Resource #6

- Individuals who initiate dialogue between community college and university faculty for the purpose of developing a formal, written and published agreement that identifies courses on a “sending” campus that are comparable to, or acceptable in lieu of, specific course requirements at a “receiving” campus.

Articulation Officers

- Assures students and faculty that students have taken the appropriate courses, received the necessary instruction and preparation, and that similar outcomes can be assured in order to progress to the next level of instruction at the receiving institution. Depending on the relationship, they can also be another transfer advocate on your campus.
Resource #7

- Regional representation of college admission professionals for out-of-state colleges and universities.

RACC
(Regional Admissions Counselors of CA)

- Partnership for providing information and resources of education opportunities outside of California. Schools are all NACAC or WACAC members who have dedicated resources for a regional office to serve Californians. RACC members can support TCDs through financial support, sponsorships, spring fairs, etc.
Resource #8

- Transfer Center Director colleagues leading one of ten regions for the purpose of being a mainstay of communication with the system office.

Regional Reps

- Collaboration of efforts to raise and address local & statewide transfer issues, communicate with intersegmental partners, and advocate for community college transfer student needs.
Headquarters for a system of individual colleges dating as far back as 1857, yet established as a system in 1961. It boasts to be the largest, most diverse, and of the more affordable university systems in the country

CSU Chancellor’s Office

Among other things, the CSU strives to prepare significant numbers of educated, responsible people to contribute to California’s schools, economy, culture, and future. TCDs primary contacts include Karen Simpson-Alisca and Nathan Evans. At times, they might also include Carolina Cardenas and Eric Forbes
Resource #10

- Electronic network of transfer professionals for the purpose of seeking and sharing information, perspectives, and ideas related to transfer matters.

TCD-all

- Allows TCDs the opportunity to strengthen their network through shared ideas, materials, and information acquired through the course of transfer-related work.
Volunteer organization focused on supporting and advancing counseling and enrollment efforts in order to promote student access and equity in California and Nevada.

WACAC
(Western Association for College Admission Counseling)

Several opportunities to develop ourselves as transfer professionals, engage in dynamic conversations on various transfer matters, as well as opportunities to educate members on transfer issues/opportunities for California community college students. Through grants made available, the organization can also be a funding source for projects which foster and encourage transfer.
Resource #12

- Organization of WASC accredited private, non-profit, colleges and universities in California. Founded in 1955 to support, strengthen, and help assure the effectiveness of California’s private non-profit colleges and universities.

AICCU

(Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities)

- Provides information related to private, non-profit, education in California and their member institutions.
Nonprofit organization, formed in 1970, for the promotion and advancement of public community college education in California. It focuses on academic and professional matters affecting community college faculty, including the development and promotion of policies responding to statewide concerns.

ASCCC
(Academic Senate of CA Community College)

The official voice representing community college faculty in statewide conversations and decision making. When transfer issues arise, affecting academic and personal matters, this organization is your resource for support and guidance, as well as the possible uprising of issue(s) to a statewide platform.
A subcommittee of ICC (Intersegmental Coordinating Committee) charged with activities supporting community college transfer. Membership is comprised of campus and system representation from CA high schools, CCCs, CSUs, Ucs, and AICCU.

Transfer Day/College Night Committee (ICC)

Guided by two primary principles: informing students, parents, and counselors about the variety of higher ed options in CA; providing students with access to these opportunities.
An informal group of seven Admission Directors focused on coordinating and improving an online guarantee program.

UC Transfer Admission Guarantee Planning Committee

Participating UC campuses seek TCD feedback in an effort to create a guaranteed admission program that benefits students, yet is acceptable to their campus faculty. TCD primary contacts include Michael McCawley, UCSC, and Cindy Bevc, UCD.
A process that enhances student access to the California Community Colleges and promotes and sustains the efforts of credit students to be successful in their educational endeavors.

SSSP
(Student Success & Support Program)

Formerly known as Matriculation, it’s goals are to ensure students complete college courses, persist, and achieve their educational objectives. Support components include admissions, orientation, assessment and testing, counseling, and student follow-up; continuing matriculation components.
