Tom Nobert

Even while working, take the time to chat with your friend, the work will still be there when you come back.

A Time to Talk by Robert Frost

When a friend calls to me from the road
And slows his horse to a meaning walk,
I don't stand still and look around
On all the hills I haven't hoed,
And shout from where I am, 'What is it?'
No, not as there is a time to talk.
I thrust my hoe in the mellow ground,
Blade-end up and five feet tall,
And plod: I go up to the stone wall
For a friendly visit.

The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Henry David Thoreau from Walden

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.
