HBCU Application Reference Guide

The Common Black College Application is available at www.cccco.edu/hbcutransfer on the student subpage.

Application fee waivers are available for students who meet the following criteria:

- Have had their educational plan reviewed with a counselor.
- Determined to be transfer-ready.
- Are on track to satisfy the specific HBCU guaranteed transfer admission requirements (available at www.cccco.edu/hbcutransfer)

Fee Waiver Code
The fee waiver code has been sent to the Transfer Center Director. Counselors and Transfer Center staff may release the access code only to students who are applying to one or more of the twenty-one (21) HBCU partner institutions. Fee waivers will be closely monitored.

1. Special Notes Community College students will need to complete the high school information however, if they have not taken the SAT or ACT then should enter the following numbers: 000.

2. Students who apply only to non-partner HBCUs may also use the Common Black College Application; however, they are required to submit a $35.00 application fee.

3. Students will need to send ALL previous and current official transcripts to each HBCU institution in which they have applied.

4. Not all HBCUs are part of the Common Black College Application. Students applying to colleges not included on the Common Black College Application should access the specific HBCU web site. Fee waivers for many HBCUs are available through NACAC at: http://www.nacacnet.org/studentinfo/feewaiver/Documents/ApplicationFeeWaiver.pdf

Note: This Application Reference Guide expires August 1, 2017.