

California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office Library and Learning Resources Program

Mission and Goals

*Adopted—June 4, 1992
5th Revision—May 31, 2017*

MISSION

The California Community College Library and Learning Resources Program in conjunction with the Chancellor's Office actively support learning and enhanced educational success among students of the California Community Colleges. At both the local and system level library and learning resources personnel work in concert with other faculty, administrators, staff, and students to expand information literacy, to assist in the delivery of instruction, to provide tutoring and learning assistance services, and to continuously strengthen quality programs in support of the teaching and learning process.

GOALS

To carry out its mission, the California Community College Library and Learning Resources programs statewide and the Chancellor's Office have identified the following goals:

- System: Continue the development of Library and Learning Resources programs as a systemwide component of the California Community Colleges, coordinated by the Chancellor's Office in consultation with the colleges.
- Instruction: Promote Library and Learning Resources programs as a means of enhancing the teaching and learning process and the promotion of intellectual growth.
- Program Review (Accountability): Ensure consistent program development through adherence to both system and institutional qualitative and quantitative accountability standards.
- Technology and Equipment: Facilitate increased utilization of technology and equipment in order to evaluate and coordinate electronic access to information resource, and student academic support services.
- Networking and Resource Sharing: Strengthen collaboration and resource sharing among community college libraries and learning resource centers statewide.
- Student Success and Equity: Advocate policies and guidelines of resources that are timely and promote equity and diversity.
